Harmony guides a 6% increase in production

Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited (Harmony) is pleased to announce that it has increased its production by approximately 6% in the first quarter of financial year 2015 - in line with its annual production guidance.

Chief executive officer, Graham Briggs, commented: "Harmony is strengthening its margins through increasing its gold production. We continued to increase our underground grade, with a 4% rise quarter on quarter."

Harmony's results for the first quarter FY15 ended 30 September 2014 will be released by webcast and conference call only on Wednesday, 5 November 2014.
