Explanatory Memorandum

(South African Shareholders are referred to Annexure 1, which contains all information relevant to them)

Statement for Australian Shareholders Only

This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared for the information of Shareholders in relation to the business to be conducted at the Company's General Meeting.

The purpose of this Explanatory Memorandum is to provide Shareholders with all information known to the Company which is material to a decision on how to vote on the Resolution in the accompanying Notice.

This Explanatory Memorandum should be read in conjunction with the Notice. Capitalised terms used in the Notice and Explanatory Memorandum are defined in the Definitions.

1. Proxies

Please note that:

- (a) a Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy;
- (b) a proxy need not be a member of the Company;
- (c) a Shareholder may appoint a body corporate or an individual as its proxy;
- (d) a body corporate appointed as a Shareholder's proxy may appoint an individual as its representative to exercise any of the powers that the body may exercise as the Shareholder's proxy; and
- (e) Shareholders entitled to cast two or more votes may appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise, but where the proportion or number is not specified, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.

The enclosed Proxy Form provides further details on appointing proxies and lodging Proxy Forms. If a Shareholder appoints a body corporate as its proxy and the body corporate wishes to appoint an individual as its representative, the body corporate should provide that person with a certificate or letter executed in accordance with the Corporations Act authorising him or her to act as that Company's representative. The authority may be sent to the Company in advance of the General Meeting or handed in at the General Meeting when registering as a corporate representative.

If a Shareholder intends to appoint the Chairman as its proxy on Resolution 1 the Shareholder can direct the Chairman how to vote by marking the box on the Resolution (for example, if the Shareholder wishes to vote 'for', 'against' or to 'abstain' from voting). If a Shareholder does not direct the Chairman how to vote, the Shareholder can expressly authorise the Chairman to vote as the Chairman thinks fit on Resolution 1 by marking the appropriate box on the Proxy Form even though the Chairman may have an interest in the outcome of Resolution 1.

To vote by proxy, and if you are an Australian Shareholder, please complete and sign the enclosed Proxy Form and send by:

Notes

1. The form of proxy must only be used by Certificated Shareholders or Dematerialised Shareholders with own name registration.
2. A Shareholder entitled to vote at the Meeting may appoint any individual (or two or more individuals) as a proxy or proxies to attend, participate in and vote at the Meeting in the place of the Shareholder. A proxy need not be a Shareholder of the Company. A Shareholder may insert the name of a proxy or the names of two alternative proxies of the Shareholder's choice in the space provided, with or without deleting "the Chairperson of the Meeting". The person whose name stands first on the form of proxy and who is present at the Meeting will be entitled to act as proxy to the exclusion of those whose names follow.
3. A Shareholder is entitled to one vote on a show of hands and, on a poll, one vote in respect of each Share held. A Shareholder's instructions to the proxy must be indicated by inserting the relevant number of votes exercisable by the Shareholder on a poll in the appropriate box(es). Failure to comply with this will be deemed to authorise the proxy to vote or to abstain from voting at the Meeting as he/ she deems fit in respect of all the Shareholder's votes. Further, should any further Resolution(s) or any amendment(s) which may properly be put before the General Meeting be proposed, the proxy shall be entitled to vote as he/she thinks fit.
4. A vote given in terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid in relation to the Meeting notwithstanding the death of the person granting it, or the revocation of the proxy, or the transfer of the ordinary Shares in respect of which the vote is given, unless notification in writing of such death, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company or the South African Transfer Secretaries not less than 48 hours before the commencement of the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the proxy is used.
5. The Chairperson of the Meeting may reject or accept any form of proxy which is completed and/or received other than in compliance with these notes.
6. The completion and lodging of this form of proxy will not preclude the relevant Shareholder from attending the Meeting and speaking and voting in person thereat to the exclusion of any proxy appointed in terms hereof, should such Shareholder wish to do so.
7. Documentary evidence establishing the authority of a person signing the form of proxy in a representative capacity must be attached to this form of proxy, unless previously recorded by the Company or unless this requirement is waived by the Chairperson of the Meeting.
8. A minor or any other person under legal incapacity must be assisted by his/her parent or guardian, as applicable, unless the relevant documents establishing him/her capacity are produced or have been registered by the Company.

9. Where there are joint holders of Shares:
- (i) any one holder may sign the form of proxy;
 - (ii) the vote(s) of the senior Shareholders (for that purpose seniority will be determined by the order in which the names of Shareholders appear on the Company's register of Shareholders) who tenders a vote (whether in person or by proxy) will be accepted to the exclusion of the vote(s) of the other joint Shareholder(s).
