Kusasaletu employees return to work

Johannesburg, Thursday, 6 April 2017: Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited ("Harmony" and/or "the Company") is pleased to announce that employees at its Kusasaletu mine near Carletonville have returned to work.

After six (6) days of ongoing unprotected industrial action at the mine, Harmony management and AMCU leadership have reached an agreement, and all employees reported to work this morning.

"We are relieved that Kusasaletu is back to normal. Unprotected industrial action affects the mine's viability, its employees and their families. It is prudent that the Kusasaletu team now continues to produce safe, profitable ounces in line with its plan" said CEO Peter Steenkamp.

Ends.
