SAFETY INCIDENT AT HARMONY'S KUSASALETHU MINE

Johannesburg, Monday, 24 February 2020. Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited ("Harmony" and/or "the Company") regrets to advise that an employee lost his life on Friday evening, following a scraper winch-related incident at its Kusasalethu mine, near Carletonville.

CEO Peter Steenkamp said: "Our sincere condolences go out to our colleague's family, friends and fellow workers. We will re-inforce - across our operations - the key elements of our safety journey: leadership, application of our risk management approach and attainment of a proactive safety culture. In this instance, work in the affected area has been stopped and we commit ourselves fully to the investigation already under way."

Ends.
