FATALITY AT KUSASALETHU

Johannesburg, Tuesday, 11 August 2020. Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited ("Harmony" and/or "the Company") regrets to advise that one of its employees succumbed to his injuries after an engineering maintenance-related accident at the Company's Kusasalethu mine in Carletonville, in South Africa's Gauteng province, yesterday evening.

Authorities have been informed and a full investigation is underway to understand the circumstances of the incident.

Harmony CEO, Peter Steenkamp, has extended his deepest condolences, and those of the Company, to the family, colleagues and friends of the deceased.

"The safety and health of our colleagues is a priority for us. We are deeply saddened by this incident and we all have a significant role to play in ensuring that we achieve zero harm in the workplace, and that safety is top of mind at all times. We are providing the necessary support to our deceased colleague's family and friends during this time." Mr Steenkamp said.

Ends.
