FATALITY AT KUSASALETHU MINE

Johannesburg, Monday, 21 December 2020.

Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited ("Harmony" and/or "the Company") regrets to advise that an employee was fatally injured on Friday morning, 18 December 2020, following a drilling incident at its Kusasalethu mine, in Carletonville near the Gauteng Province.

Authorities and organised labour were immediately informed and an investigation into the incident is currently underway. Operations in the affected section have been suspended in the interim.

"The executives and management of Harmony extend their sincerest condolences to our colleagues' family, friends and colleagues. The company will ensure that the necessary support is provided to the family in dealing with this tragedy," Peter Steenkamp, chief executive officer of Harmony commented.

Ends.
